I: American Airlines, Inc. Health and Welfare Plan for Active Employees (#501)

American Airlines has committed itself to pay all self-funded (uninsured) health and dental claims incurred under the terms of the plan.

The plan has contracts with Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, Fidelity Security Life Insurance Company, Life Insurance Company of North America, Kaiser Foundation Health Plan of the Mid-Atlantic, Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., Triple S Salud, Inc., Community Care HMO, and Humana Health Plans of Puerto Rico, Inc. to pay respectively all life insurance claims and any insured disability claims, vision insurance claims, accidental death and dismemberment claims, and certain health claims incurred under the terms of the plan. The total premiums paid for the plan year ending December 31, 2017 were $94,035,724.

Because of so called "experience-rated" contracts, the premium costs are affected by, among other things, the number and size of claims. Of the total insurance premiums paid for the plan year ending December 31, 2017, the premiums paid under such "experience-rated" contracts were $16,372,238 and the total of all benefit claims paid under the experience-rated contracts during the plan year were $15,707,045.

II: The Supplemental Medical Plan for Employees of Participating American Airlines Group Subsidiaries (#503)

Benefits under the plan are provided on a self-funded (uninsured) basis through Voluntary Employee Benefits Association Trusts (VEBAs).

The value of plan assets, after subtracting liabilities of the plan, were $92,975,099 as of December 31, 2017, compared to $81,618,085 as of January 1, 2017. During the plan year the plan experienced an increase in its net assets of $11,357,014. This increase includes unrealized appreciation and depreciation in the value of plan assets; that is, the difference between the value of the plan's assets at the end of the year and the value of the plan's assets at the beginning of the year or the cost of assets acquired during the year. During the plan year, the plan had total income of $15,050,641, including employee contributions of $2,118,277, employer contributions of $422, and earnings from investments of $12,931,942. Plan expenses were $3,693,627. These expenses included $462,440 in administrative expenses and $3,231,187 in benefits paid to participants and beneficiaries.

III: The American Airlines, Inc. Long Term Disability Plan (#509)

Benefits under the plan are provided on a self-funded (uninsured) basis through a Voluntary Employee Benefits Association Trust (VEBA).

The value of plan assets, after subtracting liabilities of the plan, were $231,186,328 as of December 31, 2017, compared to $204,146,091 as of January 1, 2017. During the plan year the plan experienced an increase in its net assets of $27,040,237. This increase includes unrealized appreciation and depreciation in the value of plan assets; that is, the difference between the value of the plan's assets at the end of the year and the value of the plan's assets at the beginning of the year or the cost of assets acquired during the year. During the plan year, the plan had total income of $39,180,187, including employee contributions of $6,546,938, employer contributions of $422, and earnings from investments of $32,632,827. Plan expenses were $12,682,836. These expenses included $2,029,777 in administrative expenses and $10,653,059 in benefits paid to participants. The plan had assets transferred in totaling $542,886.

IV: The American Airlines, Inc. Long Term Care Insurance Plan (#510)

The plan has a contract with Metropolitan Life Insurance Company to pay all long term care claims incurred under the plan. The total premiums paid for the plan year ended, December 31, 2017 were $7,921,006.

Because it is a so called "experience-rated" contract, the premium costs are affected by, among other things, the number and size of claims. Of the total insurance premiums paid for the plan year ending December 31, 2017, the premiums paid under such "experience-rated" contract were $7,921,006 and the total of all benefit claims paid under the experience-rated contract during the plan year was $8,712,332.

V: TWA Retiree Health and Life Benefits Plan (#511)
