I: American Airlines, Inc. Health and Welfare Plan for Active Employees (#501)

American Airlines has committed itself to pay all self-funded (uninsured) health and dental claims incurred under the terms of the plan.

The plan has contracts with Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, Fidelity Security Life Insurance Company, Life Insurance Company of North America, Kaiser Foundation Health Plan of the Mid-Atlantic, Kaiser Foundation Health Plan of Hawaii, Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., Triple S Salud, Inc., Community Care HMO, and Humana Health Plans of Puerto Rico, Inc. to pay respectively all life insurance and long term care claims and any insured disability claims, vision insurance claims, accidental death and dismemberment claims, and certain health claims incurred under the terms of the plan. The total premiums paid for the plan year ending December 31, 2018 were $110,523,946.

Because of so called "experience-rated" contracts, the premium costs are affected by, among other things, the number and size of claims. Of the total insurance premiums paid for the plan year ending December 31, 2018, the premiums paid under such "experience-rated" contracts were $26,044,238 and the total of all benefit claims paid under these experience-rated contracts during the plan year were $26,957,424.

II: The Supplemental Medical Plan for Employees of Participating American Airlines Group Subsidiaries (#503)

Benefits under the plan are provided on a self-funded (uninsured) basis through Voluntary Employee Benefits Association Trusts (VEBAs).

The value of plan assets, after subtracting liabilities of the plan, was $83,378,742 as of December 31, 2018, compared to $92,975,099 as of January 1, 2018. During the plan year the plan experienced a decrease in its net assets of ($9,596,357). This decrease includes unrealized appreciation and depreciation in the value of plan assets; that is, the difference between the value of the plan's assets at the end of the year and the value of the plan's assets at the beginning of the year or the cost of assets acquired during the year. During the plan year, the plan had total income/(loss) of ($6,489,655), including employer contributions of $257, employee contributions of $2,010,757, and losses from investments of ($8,500,669). Plan expenses were $3,106,702. These expenses included $508,318 in administrative expenses and $2,598,384 in benefits paid to participants and beneficiaries.

III: The American Airlines, Inc. Long Term Disability Plan (#509)

Benefits under the plan are provided on a self-funded (uninsured) basis through a Voluntary Employee Benefits Association Trust (VEBA).

The value of plan assets, after subtracting liabilities of the plan, was $203,565,329 as of December 31, 2018, compared to $231,186,328 as of January 1, 2018. During the plan year the plan experienced a decrease in its net assets of ($27,620,999). This decrease includes unrealized appreciation and depreciation in the value of plan assets; that is, the difference between the value of the plan's assets at the end of the year and the value of the plan's assets at the beginning of the year or the cost of assets acquired during the year. During the plan year, the plan had total income/(loss) of ($14,320,713), including employer contributions of $256, employee contributions of $6,804,887, and losses from investments of ($21,125,856). Plan expenses were $13,300,286. These expenses included $2,048,316 in administrative expenses and $11,251,970 in benefits paid to participants.

IV: TWA Retiree Health and Life Benefits Plan (#511)

American Airlines has committed itself to pay certain self-funded (uninsured) health claims incurred under the terms of the plan while other health benefits under the plan are provided on a self-funded (uninsured) basis through a Voluntary Employee Benefits Association Trust (VEBA).

The plan has a contract with Metropolitan Life Insurance Company to pay all life insurance claims incurred under the terms of the plan. The total premiums paid for the plan year ending December 31, 2018 were $3,219,635. Because it is a so called "experience-rated" contract, the premium costs are affected by, among other things, the number and size of claims. Of the total insurance premiums paid for the plan year ending December 31, 2018, the premiums paid under such "experience-rated" contract were $3,219,635 and the total of all benefit claims paid under the experience-rated contract during the plan year were $4,124,560.

The value of plan assets, after subtracting liabilities of the plan, was $1,774,526 as of December 31, 2018, compared to $2,328,602 as of January 1, 2018. During the plan year the plan experienced a decrease in its net assets of ($554,076). This decrease includes unrealized appreciation and depreciation in the value of plan assets; that is, the difference between the value of the plan's assets at the end of the year and the value of the plan's assets at the beginning of the year or the cost of assets acquired during the year. During the plan year, the plan had total income of $6,271,317, including employer contributions of $3,510,134, employee contributions of $2,728,811, and earnings from investments of $32,372. Plan expenses were $6,825,393. These expenses included $334,642 in administrative expenses and $6,490,751 in benefits paid to participants and beneficiaries.
